REAGAN WIPES OUT MINORITY BUSINESS GAINS

Minority Inroads into the American Business Community during the past 10 years may be completely erased within six months."

This grim prediction was made today by Mr. Lester B. Buckner, founder of a group whose purpose is defined in its name: Task Force to Save Minority Business.

The Reagan Administration's latest program-cut victim fell prey to a well executed maneuver. Accomplishing overnight that which had not been possible under the last three Presidents, he said.

Ironically, cutting participants in the 8(a) Program does not cut Federal spending. The minority-owned businesses simply will not get contracts to provide goods and services needed by the Federal Government. Instead these contracts would go the non-minority owned companies," according to Lester B. Buckner.

Twenty-three minority-owned companies that depend on Government contracts will be dropped immediately, putting more than 7,000 persons out of work.

The Administration's cuts will probably reduce minority contracts to less than one half of one percent, a dismal and dramatic set-back among minorities who are already plagued by record high unemployment.

Black Voting Age Increases

The number of voting age blacks rose 44 percent from 12 million in 1970 to 17 million in 1980, with four states reporting a black electorate of one million or more, according to a new report from the Commerce Department's Census Bureau.

New York in 1980 had the largest number of voting age blacks (1.6 million) followed by California, Texas and Illinois. The increase reflects the lowered voting eligibility to 18 years in all states, and growth of the black population, up 17.5 percent from 1970.

Two-thirds of the District of Columbia's electorate is black. States with the highest proportion of voting age blacks are Mississippi (31 percent), South Carolina and Louisiana (27 percent), Georgia (24 percent), Alabama (23 percent), Maryland (21 percent), North Carolina (20 percent), and Virginia (17 percent).

In 1980, blacks comprised 10.5 percent of the total voting age population nationally, with 53 percent living in the South. In 1980 9.8 million blacks reported being registered while 8.3 million reported voting in the 1980 election.

The black outmigration from the South that began in World War I and which spread settlement of blacks throughout the United States until the mid-70's considerably equalized the regional distribution of blacks. Nevertheless, one in every six persons of voting age in the South was black in 1980.

The Spanish-origin voting age population comprised about 5.5 percent of the total electorate in 1980. California and Texas together contained half of the Spanish-origin electorate (2.8 million and 1.8 million), followed by New York (1.1 million) and Florida (629,000). Nearly 70 percent of the Hispanic voting age population resided in these four states.

The report notes that women are the majority of the voting age population in all states except Alaska, Hawaii, Nevada, and Wyoming. It projects that the nation's voting age population will reach 170 million in November 1982, a 5 million increase over the4 total for the 1980 election and 29 million more than in November, 1972.

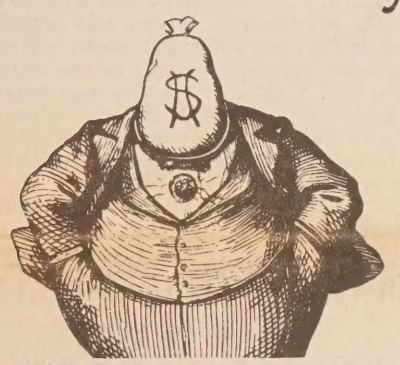
It's YOUR Money



BE CAREFUL WHERE YOU SPEND YOUR MONEY

The money that is spent on cigarettes, soda barbegue sauce and other items could be used to gain the economic freedom that is so desperateley needed in our communities. "We do have the money. We just aren't careful where we spent it." This was a statement made by Georgia State Senator, Julian Bond at the recently held Roy Wilkens Scholarship luncheon.

Mr. Bond, alon with the Rev. Jesse Jackson and many others recognize the need for comminities to self-sufficient and not depend on hand-outs or gifts from the outside . The meaning is: People spend billions of dollars each and every year on products and services that are most profitable to individuals who couldn't care less about economic freedom for anyone but themselves.

In order for a community to grow, the residents of that community must help build it. Thought should be given to where the benefits are going before we spend. Merchants, retailers, and wholesalers who do not contribute to the growth of a community should not be in that community. Part of the money made in the community should be used in the community to assist in the welfare of the community.

BALANCED BUDGET——— AMENDMENT

The President supports it. The Senate passed it. But the propsed constitutional amendment mandating a balanced federal budget is a dud, an aberration that does not make fiscal, economic or constitutional sense.

Deviations from those have been doomed to failure, as witness the Prohibition amendment. Our Constitution thus has been able to Withstand the enormous changes that have taken place over the past two hundred years.

The balanced budget amendment, however, would incorporate into the basic law of the land a specific public policy best left to successive governments accountable to the voters.

A balanced budget mandate could help push a recession-ridden economy into full scale Depression, and it could tie the government's hands in cases of emergencies where unplanned for spending is vital.

Rather than loading the Constitution with an Unworkable amendment, it makes more sense to change the budget process so that it reflects reality.

Some states with balanced budget restrictions and virtually all businesses separate their budgets into operating and capital budgets.

The balanced budget amendment is just a political ploy that could only hurt the economy. The Constitution is no place for an accounting procedure or for bad public policy.

MORE JOBS

Getting people back to work should be our top priority. Art supports export assistance centers to help small businesses market their products overseas. He is working hard to revitalize our housing industry.

Tacoma is coming alive. The Tacoma Dome, Cornerstone, Sea-Land, and the Executive Inn are visible symbols of needed development. The state must support and encourage these activities. We must not allow the Port of Tacoma to merge under Seattle's influence.

COMBINED FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

The Regan Administration has granted yet another opportunity to the far right wing to enrich itself, this time at the expense of federal and postal employees and the needy.

The government's Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) is a program by which federal and postal employees make contributions to help the poor, the sick and the oppressed. On July 23, the CFC National Eligibility Committee voted 6-2--the two federal and postal employee representatives dissenting--to designate the National Right to Work Legal Defense Foundation as a "national service agency" that may participate in the federal fund raising campaign. This totally perverts the concept of charity.

Reaganomics has bloated the ranks of the unemployed and of those living in poverty while starving the social sector. As a result, the resources of agencies that minister to those who cannot provide for themselves are strained to the limits. These agencies and those they serve are in desperate need of the sustaining funds provided by the CFC. At the same time, the Administration's actions against federal and postal employees--including RIFs, pay caps, furloughs and increased health plan contributions--make it increasingly difficult for these employees to find the money to make CFC contributions.

The decision of the CFC Eligibility Committee has a particular irony, since the stated purpose of the Right to Work Foundation is to oppose the union shop and the agency shop. Federal employees are not even permitted to bargain for, much less to obtain, these equitable means of spreading the costs of union representation among all those whom the union represents.

The AFL-CIO, together with its departments and its affiliated national and international unions, will make every effort to insure that federal and postal union members are fully informed on the National Rightto Work Committee Legal Defense Fund's goals and why it is neither a legitimate charity nor worthy of support.

POLITICAL CANDIDATE BASH

The major Pierce County political candidates and their supporters will gather on Primary Night (September 14) at 8 pm. At the University Union Club (539 Broadway, Tacoma) to celebrate the primary election. The reception will feature up-to-the-minute election results, the music of Red Kelly and His Band, a no-host bar, and will be attended by most of the major candidates in Pierce County.

The bash is open to candidates, campaign workers and the press. Norm Dicks, Ted Haley and county and legislative candidates as well as Mayor Doug Sutherland, County Executive Booth Gardner, and other county and city office holders will be present.

The party is being sponsored by the supporters of non-partisan Port Commission candidate Ed Hudson. As a result of an Attorney General's decision this summer, Hudson's race was delayed until November 1983. Hudson hopes the event, which is modeled after the Municipal League party in King County, will become an annual affair. Admission is $5.

RODNEY CLARK

The Slam-Dunk basketball league was played at semi-progessional level as eight teams competed for the distinguished title. The regular season was filled with one-second thrillers. Frank Simmons, John Johnson and Mike Milligan couldn't get things going at the right time for the Lakers. Last-second shots by Tony Carter of Elliott Wooten's Bucks, and great transition games by Cleatus Brooks, Tony Crain and James Cain of the Celtics stopped the Lakers from their run and gun type format. The Sonics was the team to beat in the American Conference. Rober Swift, Farrence "Gus" Quins and Maurice Linton kept the Sonics moving in the right direction until Paul Kirkwood, Joseph Bellamy and Bubba Dixon of the suns captured a 2-1 defeat to the Sonics in The American Conference Championship series. The Suns advanced to the World Championship series to take on the undefeated Bucks, coached by Elliott Wooten, of the National Conference. The Bucks team Captain, Mike Hopkins, pulled together a raunchy bunch of guards that worked together to destroy many of the pre-season favorites. Marco Simmons, Dwayne Hill, Mike Simpson and Tony Carter made the Bucks the number 1 team to beat. In the World Championships, the Bucks are trailing the Suns 1-2 in the best 3 of 5 championship series games. The final two games will be played Thursday night at 7:30 pm. The public is invited to attend.

The P.E. Department's Cheerleaders will sponsor a magnificent marathon at the Al Davies Boys Club on October 1 at 3:00 pm. until 9:00 am. There will be shown all night in the Library. Come To Church Services

ST. JOHN.
10:10

VERILY, verily, I say unto you He that entereth not by the door into the sheepford but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

To him the porter openeth: and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.
All that ever came before me are thieves and Robber but the sheep did not hear them.

THANK YOU LORD

Dear Lord, I visited a variety of people today, and suddenly I realized that there;s a lot I take for granted.

Lord, I visited the blind today, Thank You For my sight.

I visited the mentally defective, Thank You for a sharp and good mind.

I visited the physically handicapped, Thank You for giving me a strong and healthy body.

I visited the defeated and the quitters, Thank You for the strength , courage, will and wisdom to carry on and be a winner.

I visited the people who take drugs, drink,, rob, deceive others and break the law, Thank You for giving me the courage and strength to resist these temptations.

Last of All, Lord, I visited the dying, And I thank You for letting me live and know happiness today, for one never knows vhat tomorrow may bring.

Amen.
